This Agreement for Covenants Not To Sue (the “Agreement”) is entered into among the following parties:

1. The Department of Toxic Substances Control (“DTSC”);
2. The Regional Water Quality Control Board, Central Valley Region (“Central Valley Water Board”); and
3. Jack Alquist, individually and as a Trustee of the Alquist Family Trust, dated March 2, 1981; Guild Cleaners, Inc., a California corporation; the Estate of Dwight Alquist, Deceased; the Alquist Family Trust, dated March 2, 1981; and Beulah Viva Alquist, individually and as a Trustee of Alquist Family Trust, dated March 2, 1981, (collectively referred to as the “Guild Parties”).

These parties are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.” Any person or entity identified above may be referred to as a “Party.”

B. Background

1. Jack Alquist, Beulah Viva Alquist, and the Alquist Family Trust, dated March 2, 1981, own or have owned at various times certain property located at 17 and 31 South Church Street, Lodi, California (the "Guild Property"). The Guild Property, as well as certain neighboring property, is located within what is commonly referred to as the Central Plume Area and is alleged to have become environmentally contaminated as a result of or arising from the operations of Guild Dry Cleaners and other businesses, and from the City’s sewer main located in the alley behind 17 South Church Street.
2. Dwight Alquist, an individual, owned and operated Guild Dry Cleaners as a sole proprietorship at 17 South Church Street from approximately 1959 to 1981. Dwight Alquist died in 1982. The City sued the Estate of Dwight Alquist, Deceased, pursuant to the California Probate Code section 550, et seq., in that federal litigation identified at paragraph 10 of this section.
3. Guild Cleaners, Inc., a California corporation, was incorporated in 1981 by Jack Alquist. Guild Cleaners, Inc. has operated the Guild Dry Cleaners at 17 South Church Street from approximately 1981 to the present.
4. Contaminants, including PCE, have been identified in the soil and groundwater beneath the Central Plume Area, as set forth in that federal litigation identified at paragraph 10 of this section, the April 22, 2004, Central Valley Water Board Cleanup and Abatement Order No. R5-2004-0043 for the Central Plume Area (“CAO”), and the rescinded Imminent and Substantial Endangerment Determination and Remedial Action Order (“RAO”) that the DTSC issued for the Central Plume Area on May 30, 2003, and amended on July 9, 2003 (the "Central Plume Contamination"). The "Central Plume Area" means the entire area in which the Central Plume Contamination is or was present.

5. In or about 2001, the Guild Parties began investigative activities associated with commencing a Remedial Investigation/Feasibility Study ("RI/FS") in the Central Plume Area. In or about April 2002, the Guild Parties submitted a draft RI/FS Workplan to the Central Valley Water Board and the DTSC.
6. The amended RAO named as respondents Guild Cleaners, Inc.; the Estate of Dwight Alquist, Deceased; Odd Fellows Hall Association of Lodi, Inc.; Lodi News Sentinel, Inc.; Beckman and Company; Beckman Capital Corporation; and Angelina Comporato. The DTSC rescinded the RAO on or about May 12, 2004.
7. The Central Valley Water Board is the lead governmental agency responsible for oversight of the Central Plume Area. Pursuant to a letter, dated May 12, 2004, the DTSC has agreed that the Central Valley Water Board should serve as the lead oversight agency with respect to the Central Plume Area.
8. On April 22, 2004, the Central Valley Water Board issued Cleanup and Abatement Order No. R5-2004-0043 for the Central Plume Area ("CAO"). The CAO names as respondents Guild Cleaners, Inc., the City, Lodi News-Sentinel, Odd Fellows Hall Association of Lodi, and Beckman Capital Corporation.
9. As part of the investigation and remediation measures set forth above, the Guild Parties conducted a pilot study, which included the installation of a soil-vapor extraction system. The Guild Parties also submitted a DRAFT Remedial Investigation/Feasibility Study, Lodi Central Plume Area to the Central Valley Water Board on August 16, 2004. The City conducted sampling and analysis of indoor air in the Central Plume Area pursuant to a work plan approved by Central Valley Water Board (the "Indoor Air Assessment"), and performed deep groundwater sampling in the Central Plume Area.
10. On November 2, 2000, and as later amended on May 25, 2001, August 4, 2004, September 9, 2004, and January 21, 2005, the City filed a Complaint for damages against Guild Cleaners, Inc., Jack Alquist; and Estate of Dwight Alquist, Deceased, among others, in United States District Court for the Eastern District of California, Case No. CIV-00-2441 FCD/JFM, alleging that Guild Cleaners, Inc., Jack Alquist; and Estate of Dwight Alquist, Deceased were responsible in part for the Central Plume Contamination (the "Lodi Action"). Guild Cleaners, Inc. has filed counterclaims against the City in the Lodi Action.
11. The City and the Guild Parties have now resolved to settle any and all disputes arising from or related to the Central Plume Contamination or its causes, including those claims and counterclaims arising from any alleged civil rights violations.

These covenants not to sue shall take effect immediately upon execution of this Agreement or, if later, execution of an agreement between the City and the Central Valley Water Board in which the City assumes the Guild Parties' liability as to the Central Valley Water Board. The DTSC's and the Central Valley Water Board's covenants not to sue are conditioned on the Guild Parties' completion of all their obligations to the City pursuant to the Settlement Agreement. For purposes of paragraph C.1.(e) of the Settlement Agreement, "reasonable access" includes access that the Central Valley Water Board determines is necessary or appropriate to achieve compliance with the CAO (or revisions thereto). [Need to resolve NRD issue.]
 - (d) future liability based on any of the Guild Parties causing or permitting the discharge of waste.
2. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing herein is intended nor shall be construed to preclude the DTSC or the Central Valley Water Board from exercising authority under any law, statute or regulation with respect to any person not a Party hereto.
3. Nothing in this Agreement is intended as a covenant not to sue for any claim or cause of action, administrative or judicial, civil or criminal, past or future, in law or in equity, which the DTSC or the Central Valley Water Board may have against any person not a Party to this Agreement.
4. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create any rights in, or grant any cause of action to any person not a party to this Agreement.
